

Dialogue Cards

1. Original Dialogue:

I just don't get it said Emma frustrated I studied for hours last night but I still feel like I don't know anything about today's test.

Maybe you need a break replied her friend Sarah you've been stressing about this exam for days.

You're probably right sighed Emma I'll try to relax a bit before class.

Your Task

Rewrite the dialogue by adding quotation marks and commas.

2. Original Dialogue:

I can't believe it exclaimed John we've been working on this project for weeks and it's finally done.

I know replied Maria it feels like such a relief to hand it in.

What are you going to do now that we're finished asked John relax and watch TV all weekend?

Actually laughed Maria I'm going to start planning our next project.

Your Task

Rewrite the dialogue by adding quotation marks and commas.

3. Original Dialogue:

Why didn't you tell me earlier asked Mark you knew the deadline was today didn't you?
I was going to tell you earlier explained Lily but I didn't want to stress you out.
Well you did the opposite said Mark I could have finished everything on time if I'd known.
I'm sorry Lily replied I'll help you finish it now.

Your Task

Rewrite the dialogue by adding quotation marks and commas.

4. Original Dialogue:

Are you going to the school play tonight asked Mia everyone is talking about how great it's going to be.
I'm not sure yet replied Daniel I have a lot of homework to finish first.
Come on insisted Mia you can do your homework after the play.
We'll see said Daniel I'll let you know later.

Your Task

Rewrite the dialogue by adding quotation marks and commas.

5. Original Dialogue:

The weather forecast says it's going to snow all weekend remarked Sam which means our camping trip might be cancelled.
That's terrible replied Jake I was really looking forward to it.
Me too said Sam but we can always reschedule for next month.
I hope so agreed Jake I already bought new hiking boots just for this trip.

Your Task

Rewrite the dialogue by adding quotation marks and commas.

6. Original Dialogue:

I've never seen such a long line at the amusement park before said Tom we're going to be waiting here forever.

It's because it's a holiday weekend replied Sophie everyone wants to go to the park today.

I wish we'd come earlier sighed Tom then we could have avoided the crowd.

Next time let's plan better said Sophie with a grin.

Your Task

Rewrite the dialogue by adding quotation marks and commas.

7. Original Dialogue:

This new restaurant is supposed to be amazing said Jenny I've heard they have the best pizza in town.

I can't wait to try it replied Alex pizza is my favorite food.

Do you think we'll need a reservation asked Jenny it might be really crowded on a Friday night.

We should call ahead said Alex just to be safe.

Your Task

Rewrite the dialogue by adding quotation marks and commas.

8. Original Dialogue:

How do you always manage to stay so calm under pressure asked Lisa I get so nervous during big tests.

I just focus on what I can control explained Emily and try not to worry about the rest.

That sounds easier said than done admitted Lisa I wish I could be like that.

You can do it too replied Emily it just takes practice.

Your Task

Rewrite the dialogue by adding quotation marks and commas.

9. Original Dialogue:

Did you see that huge dog in the park today exclaimed Rachel it was the biggest dog I've ever seen.

Yes laughed Ethan it looked like it could be part horse.

I wonder what kind of dog it was mused Rachel I've never seen one like that before.

Maybe we'll see it again tomorrow replied Ethan and we can ask the owner.

Your Task

Rewrite the dialogue by adding quotation marks and commas.

10. Original Dialogue:

I heard we're getting a new student in our class next week said Lily do you know anything about them?

I think they're moving here from another city replied Michael I heard they're really good at sports.

It'll be interesting to meet someone new said Lily I hope they like our school.

I'm sure they will said Michael especially if we make them feel welcome.

Your Task

Rewrite the dialogue by adding quotation marks and commas.

Instructions for Students

For each dialogue, rewrite the conversation by adding the necessary quotation marks and commas. Punctuate the dialogue correctly to show who is speaking and when and ensure the conversation flows smoothly.

Title Cards

1. Original Sentence:

*We read The Road Not Taken in our poetry class yesterday.*

Your Task

Rewrite the sentence by adding quotation marks around the title of the poem.

2. Original Sentence:

*Our teacher assigned the short story The Lottery by Shirley Jackson for homework.*

Your Task

Rewrite the sentence by adding quotation marks around the title of the short story.

3. Original Sentence:

*I loved the article Climate Change and Its Effects on Wildlife that I found in National Geographic.*

Your Task

Rewrite the sentence by adding quotation marks around the title of the article.

4. Original Sentence:

*My favourite song from the album is Let It Be by The Beatles.*

Your Task

Rewrite the sentence by adding quotation marks around the title of the song.

5. Original Sentence:

We analyzed the short story A Sound of Thunder in literature class last week.

Your Task

Rewrite the sentence by adding quotation marks around the title of the short story.

6. Original Sentence:

Have you read the poem The Raven by Edgar Allan Poe?

Your Task

Rewrite the sentence by adding quotation marks around the title of the poem.

7. Original Sentence:

The article The Science Behind Supervolcanoes was really informative.

Your Task

Rewrite the sentence by adding quotation marks around the title of the article.

8. Original Sentence:

In history class, we read the poem In Flanders Fields about World War I.

Your Task

Rewrite the sentence by adding quotation marks around the title of the poem.

9. Original Sentence:

*Our teacher recommended the short story The Gift of the Magi by O. Henry for extra reading.*

Your Task

Rewrite the sentence by adding quotation marks around the title of the short story.

10. Original Sentence:

*The song Shake It Off by Taylor Swift is playing on the radio.*

Your Task

Rewrite the sentence by adding quotation marks around the title of the song.

Instructions for Students:

For each sentence, rewrite it by adding quotation marks around the title of the short work (poem, short story, article, or song). Pay close attention to where the quotation marks should be placed to clearly indicate the title of the work.

Complex Sentence Cards

1. Original Sentence:

The house that was built in 1890 is now a museum.

Your Task

Rewrite the sentence by adding commas to set off the non-essential clause.

2. Original Sentence:

My brother who is studying to be a doctor will graduate next year.

Your Task

Rewrite the sentence by adding commas to set off the non-essential clause.

3. Original Sentence:

The cake which was baked by my grandmother was the highlight of the party.

Your Task

Rewrite the sentence by adding commas to set off the non-essential clause.

4. Original Sentence:

The movie which won several awards was very inspiring.

Your Task

Rewrite the sentence by adding commas to set off the non-essential clause.

5. Original Sentence:

My friend Jenny who moved to Australia last year is coming to visit us.

Your Task

Rewrite the sentence by adding commas to set off the non-essential clause.

6. Original Sentence:

The book that I bought yesterday which is a bestseller has already sold out.

Your Task

Rewrite the sentence by adding commas to set off the non-essential clause.

7. Original Sentence:

Our teacher Mrs. Smith who has been teaching for over 20 years gave us a surprise quiz.

Your Task

Rewrite the sentence by adding commas to set off the non-essential clause.

8. Original Sentence:

The dog which was abandoned as a puppy has found a new home.

Your Task

Rewrite the sentence by adding commas to set off the non-essential clause.

9. Original Sentence:

The city of Paris which is known for its art and culture attracts millions of tourists every year.

Your Task

Rewrite the sentence by adding commas to set off the non-essential clause.

10. Original Sentence:

My aunt who lives in New York is visiting us for the holidays.

Your Task

Rewrite the sentence by adding commas to set off the non-essential clause.

Instructions for Students:

Rewrite each sentence by adding commas to set off the non-essential clause or phrase. Make sure to separate the extra information that isn't necessary for the sentence's core meaning but provides additional context or details.